

Center for Visually Impaired honor volunteers

December 26, 2013; Page

DAYTONA BEACH – The Center for the Visually Impaired, a local nonprofit agency serving the blind and visually impaired in Volusia County, recognized several local volunteers Dec. 10 during its annual dinner and awards reception.

Kathy Davis, founder of the center and retired from Daytona State College where she taught as a senior professor for 30 years, was named a Lifetime Board Member. Widely recognized for her role as an advocate for promoting the rights and opportunities for blind and visually impaired people, she served for four years as president of the National Federation of the Blind of Florida. Additional honorees at the dinner included Marilyn Wilhoit, an avid supporter of CVI's teen program, as volunteer of the year and Doris Robey as donor of the year.